Prologue

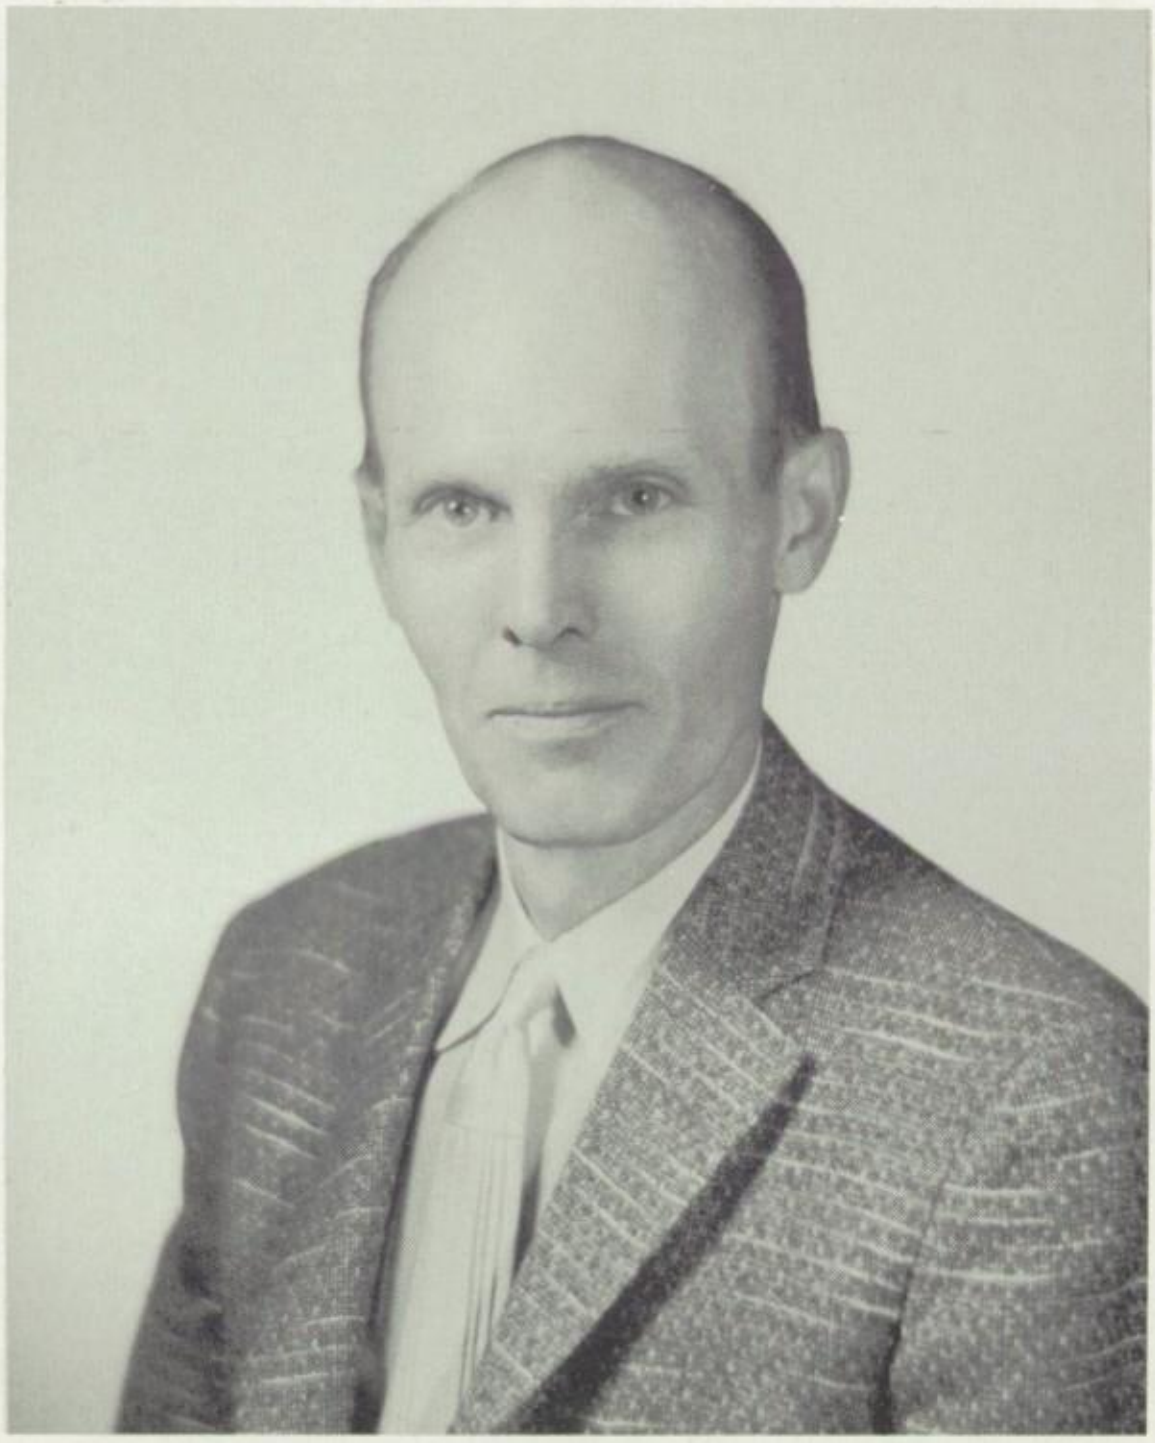
Within the pages of this Yearbook we inscribe the history of our days at Killingly High.

As we embark on the road of life, we will treasure these days of our youth. We shall never forget our first impressions as we walked through the halls of K.H.S. as new and eager Freshmen. Precious incidents, amusing and sad, the first friends we made, our class plays and assemblies, our first prom, the victories and defeats of athletic events, our homework, the teachers who extended "helping hands", have made our K.H.S. training such an important part of our lives that it is difficult to realize these days have come to their end.

As we walk away for the last time, we do so proudly and with determination, with boldness and strength to answer the call of opportunity.

Therefore, we are leaving a record of achievements in this yearbook, and entrust to time and to ourselves our future yet to be written on the empty pages of another book.

We, the class of '58
dedicate this yearbook to you . . .



MR. HERBERT J. BRINE

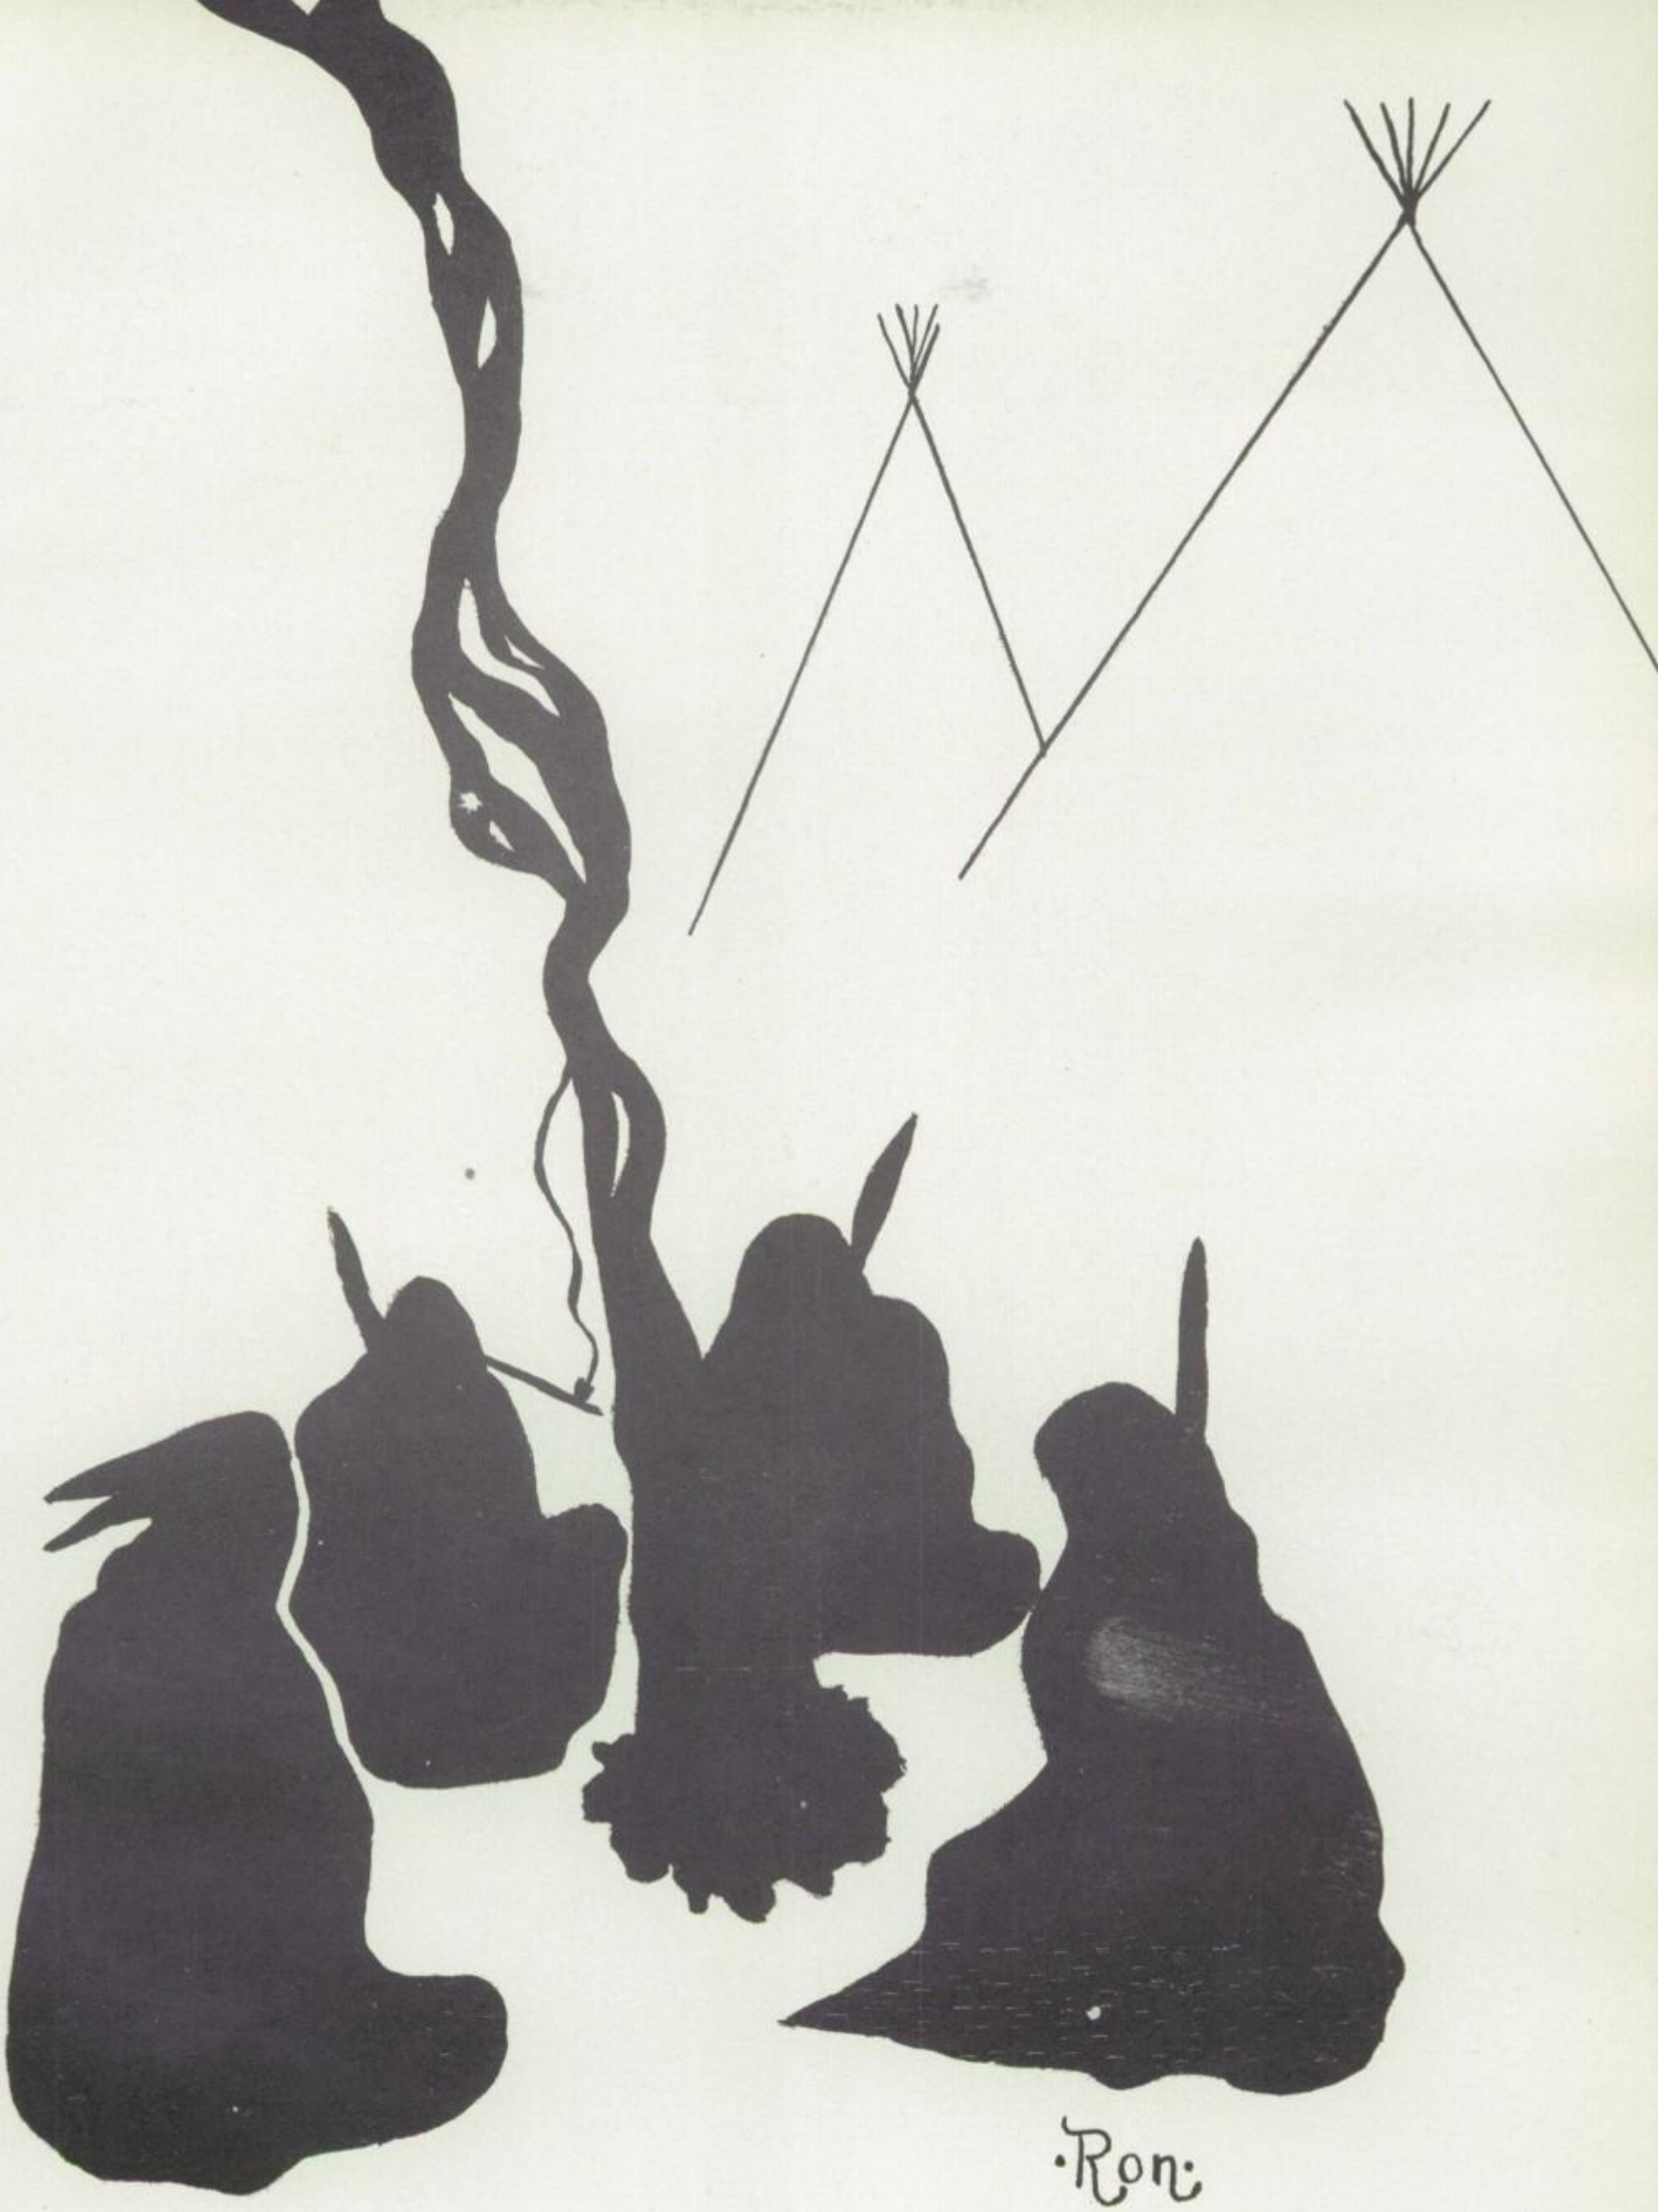
. . . for all the time and effort you have spent to prepare each of us to enter the world with wisdom, understanding, and a sense of responsibility. You have done so much for us in the English classes where we learned more than literature and grammar . . . in the play rehearsals where we learned about dramatics . . . in the Senior play itself which, through your excellent guidance, was a success . . . in our class meetings where we learned parliamentary procedure. Your patience and understanding have always been there to help us no matter how ungrateful we appeared at times. Thank you, Mr. Brine, for helping to make our years at K.H.S. happy and profitable ones.

and to you . . .

MR. FREDERICK S. KILEY

Although you have left K.H.S. to teach elsewhere, we shall never forget our Junior year with you. Those in our class who played football profited greatly from your untiring efforts in coaching. You often told us that the success of a play is never credited to the director, but to the actors. In our hearts we know our Junior play could never have been a success without you.

Your witty remarks and sense of humor added a sparkle that made so many of our English classes unforgettable. You only taught our class for one year, Mr. Kiley, but the impression you left behind will remain with us forever.



·Ron·

DR. CHARLES MURPHY
Superintendent of Schools

Dr. Murphy, we have found you to be a friend and guardian.

Throughout our years at Killingly, you have exemplified the traits of an outstanding person. Your genuine interest in all of our school functions has been greatly appreciated.

The innumerable physical comforts with which you have provided the school served in making the learning process an easier one.

Your enthusiasm and interest have enhanced a cooperation among the schools in the Killingly-Brooklyn area.

Please accept our sincerest thanks.

Mr. Fisher, your devotion to the school and your profession has instilled in us the utmost respect for the many complex processes of education. In the years to come, as Killingly High School continues to grow in spirit and size, we seniors will look back on your assistance with fond memories and heartfelt appreciation.

Carita is one of the musical members of our class. She has contributed much of her time and talent to the glee club and choir during the past four years and also to the band in her Junior and Senior years. To those who do not really know her she seems quiet. On the other hand, her friends all agree that she has a very warm and lively personality. The best of luck to you, Carita, we know you deserve it.

If you should see someone rush past you in the hall, it undoubtedly will be Mary. She is probably the busiest member of our class. She is a member of the Freshman College English class, has been an active band member for four years, and is co-editor of the yearbook. She is our "most polite" and "most argumentative" girl. If your four years at K.H.S. are any indication of what the future holds for you, success is bound to be yours, Mary.

If you happened to see a girl running through the halls, you can be sure it was Helvi, rushing to a meeting of one kind or another. She made a very pretty Junior Prom Queen and did a wonderful job as lead in both our Junior and Senior plays. Despite all that she did for the class she always had time for her studies. Her friends will always remember her as the cutest girl in the class with a personality to go with it. We know Bill will agree with us. May all your dreams come true Helvi; you deserve that and much more ! ! !

DOUGLAS KENEFICK "Douggie" General

Because of his charming smile and "hello" for everyone, he has acquired many friends. We sincerely wish you the best of everything in your career as an electronics engineer, Eddie.

Last Legal Testament of the Class of 1958

We, the illustrious Class of 1958, in order that we may leave a lasting impression with our instructors and fellow students at Killingly High, have decided to bequeath our worldly possessions to those whom we leave behind.

Therefore, being of sound mind and under no persecution whatsoever, (except Mr. Brine's), we do solemnly declare this our last will and testament.

To Paul Brennan goes Paul Caron's ability to sleep during biology classes.

Pat Nichols bequeaths her "Model A" Ford to Mr. Berthiaume's Driver Education classes.

Richard Allen inherits Dick Elvin's scholastic ability, but Dick keeps his knack for teasing the girls.

Mary Atsales departs with a solemn promise to Mr. Koss to replace his desk in ten years.

Barbara Stone leaves her love for Putnam to next year's football team.

"Sure-shot" Kathy Lannon leaves an empty spot in the Girls' Varsity Team as she "charges" her way out of school.

Where is everybody? Leon Grudzinski just took off in his white "Merc" and left K.H.S. completely buried in a cloud of dust.

Cliff Aubin leaves with a certain Junior girl missing him.

Carolyne Montstream just refuses to have those algebra problems around, so she bequeaths them to anyone who needs a problem.

Ronnie Bernier leaves his smart wardrobe to David Keeler.

June Salony catches the first bus for Providence.

Clinton Smith leaves his burlap bag to anyone who needs it to carry his books.

"Champ" Andy Tillinghast walks off with the booby prize in spelling.

Helen LeClaire leaves keeping an eye on her cherished diamond.

Carita "Supergirl" Aarnio wills the school cymbals to anyone who thinks he can lift them.

Tom Mullaly gives the weather report to anyone without an umbrella.

Moe "Sheriff" Corbeil bequeaths his badge to any underclassman who can beat him to the draw.

Kathy Roy and Mary Ann Costa leave still struggling with Miss Brodeur's newfangled office machines.

Arthur Desfosses gives the four s's in his name back to Mississippi.

David Kettelle leaves his guinea pig to the biology classes for experimentation.

Pete Harrelle grants a little peace and quiet to his instructors on the condition that they smother underclassmen with homework.

Elaine Derosier inherits Gail Romppainen's long brunette hair.

Simply no one can replace Angela Minio's ability to talk and talk and talk . . .

Richard Traut wills his height to Saul Ahola.

Sally Harriman leaves her captivating "carrot-top" to Marie Auclair.

Roger Beauregard leaves his cronies to carry on for him at P.T.S.

Jack Weaver bequeaths the co-captainship of the football team to John Downs.

Our petite Lil Rainville leaves the Traffic Squad minus a powerful "No talking, please!"

Just no one can fill in the empty spot left by John Wadewitz and his hard-working study habits.

Barbara Repasky, talented in so many fields, leaves her place open to anyone who can fill it.

Rose Cimochowski wills her industriousness to Jackie Phaiah.

John Soderberg, our wavy-haired chatterbox, leaves the girls in a dither. Now there's no one to talk to. But wait, here comes Frey Aarnio to take his place.

Helen Zurowski leaves the school in a whirl as she dances off into a happy future.

Bud Kettelle leaves his impish smile to brighten the halls of K.H.S.

Pete Chartier bestows his blond locks upon Don Keech.

Vivacious Helvi Karro wills her cute nose to Elaine Linkkilla.

Richard Grenier departs still looking for a job.

Freddie Bowen and Linda Merow leave with eyes only for each other.

Carol Nash and Haila Peterson bequeath their skill in commercial subjects to Mary Ann Juber and Jean Neilson.

Ray Veillette takes his diploma and leaves, quick!

Roger Privee and Scotty Bryce leave owing everybody money.

To be fair and equal to all, Barbara Arnold distributes her gift of knowledge to the public.

Don Parsons leaves Room 14 without a talented artist, but Mr. Brine can fill in for him!

Hilde Havenith leaves contented to have proved conclusively that girls with glasses are attractive.

Laila "Minnie" Renvall leaves her Swedish accent for future use in class plays.

To Sandra Schmidt goes Ruth Whipple's collection of gym excuses.

Joyce Fitzsimmons is the recipient of Mary Dunn's quiet manners.

Jimmie Mason leaves all the noise he can make with his '54 Ford.

Shirley Mahon wills her artistic talent to Annelise Graff, but will not part with a single lock of that long hair.

Dennis "The Menace" McShane leaves his knack for witty comments to anyone who can think fast enough!

Gerry Zajac bequeaths his robe and gavel to Mr. Brine, cautioning him to prosecute severely all rulebreakers in Room 14.

Arlene Moran, our busy 4-H'er, leaves her cooking and sewing ability to Bev Jaworski.

Bob Tegtmeier leaves his tardy slips to Dennis Hopkins.

Renee Markley leaves the "library gang" of Room 14 minus an industrious student.

Lucien Joly is the recipient of Peter Rukstela's size 13 shoes.

Janet Smith leaves still trying to convince Mr. Brine that "Rock and Roll" is music.

Lorraine Smurra bequeaths those big brown eyes to Carole MacDonald with instructions to use them wisely.

Ready for takeoff? Terry and Rita Bessette are! K.H.S. is left without a trick-flying pilot as they blast off on that smooth Broad Street runway!

Teddy LeFevre leaves! He can't think of any reason why he should stay! !

Joan McMerriman leaves her job at "Woodward's" to anyone who has as pleasing a smile for the customers.

Barbara Rukstela donates her Mariner's uniform to the Brooklyn troop.

Ray Burlingame leaves taking Joan Brown's heart with him.

Jack Burk inherits Bob Page's pipe, smoke and all!

Ed Markley leaves his size to Thomas Ray.

Lucy Chapin leaves Mr. Brine still stunned by her "quiet" sneezes in English class.

To Paul Peabody goes Martin O'Connor's way with the girls.

Joan LaCombe leaves her love of science to freshman Ronnie Chenard.

Dot Breton, Jeannine Gaudette, Barbara Gibeault all leave together in Dot's "hot rod" Nash.

Elaine Chapman leaves her sketching pads and art books to Mr. Haskell.

Phillip Lancer leaves the Driver Education car in one piece.

That giggle just can't stay behind! Norma Chenard flies off on her Air Force wings taking it with her.

Joe Zadora, Arthur Tracy, and Richard Toper leave their ability to get into Room 14 at 8:24 to Douglas Tracy.

Mimi Baribeau leaves her good nature as a last resort for the teachers during "difficult" classes.

Doug Kenefick wills his fishing skill to Paul Samborski.

Toots Cotnoir bestows her exceptional athletic ability upon . . . Let's face it, there's no one to take her place.

Ginny Jacques leaves a quiet spot in our class.

Kathy Kowal leaves a vacant seat in the back of the room! But a word to the wise is sufficient; Mr. Brine sees all!

Arline Brunet bequeaths her quiet, charming manner upon some "noisy" Juniors who need it!

Cynthia Gedney leaves the majorette force without a tall and stunning member.

Fred Jacobi leaves an electronic brain to Mr. Koss' math classes.

Diane Gumula leaves her name and dimples in care of Diane Riley.

Ruth "Vamp" Manttari wills her knowing ways and cute blond looks to Aggie Sandholm.

Justine Green leaves her job at the Orpheum to anyone who doesn't have a T.V.

Head majorette Barbara King leaves her whistle still ringing in the ears of the band members.

Donald Choquette cheerfully walks away from the A&P, leaving all the work behind.

Arlette Cournoyer takes her peppy cheering ability with her and leaves the squad temporarily inactive.

Pat Carragher leaves giggling "Ain't life grand? ! !"

Lois Lavigueur wills her shining hair and sparkly dark eyes to Sandra Page.

Lastly, to Mr. Brine, each member of the Senior Class donates some patience and understanding to replace the supply he used up during our last year at K.H.S.

Having stated our last words (for a while) we:

Professor Getoutfast BARBARA ARNOLD
Student Takeoff HILDE HAVENITH
Up and Atom GERALD ZAJAC

wind up our propellors; don our beanies and take off on our Supersonic Motor-Scooters amidst a cloud of light rays into future space years.

Class History

Four years ago, all of us found ourselves embarking on somewhat of an adventure, something new that made us feel so mature. Those four years have become history and now we, the class of '58, realize that another phase of our life has been completed. Here at Killingly High we have laid the foundations of our lives and we must now go out into the world and build upon them.

As we look back on our high school days we remember the teachers, the dances, the football games — all the events that have made our last four years so unforgettable.

Let's look back to our FRESHMAN YEAR.

Remember how grown up we felt when the first day of high school became a reality and then finding ourselves so timid and awkward in front of those "big" upperclassmen. The many teachers, books, and new friends soon helped us to lose that feeling and we found ourselves absorbed in the many activities and homework assignments.

Our first class meeting was held in October of 1954 under the supervision of Mr. Theodore Natorski, our class advisor. Elected to serve as our first class officers were Dennis McShane, President; Helen Zurowski, Vice President; Patricia Perry, Secretary; John Weaver, Treasurer; and Maureen Markley, Class Historian.

Soon after we launched ourselves on our first big project—organizing the class assembly, which was given in January. Due to the wholehearted efforts of the cast and its directors, the Class of '58's version of "Arthur Godfrey's Talent Scout Show" was a thundering success.

On March 18th the school gym became the setting for "Shamrock Serenade", our first class dance.

The 30th annual speaking contest had four representatives from our class—Thomas Mullaly and Linda Mayhew who placed second and third respectively, and also Lorraine Smurra and Elaine Chapman.

Our first year as high school students was over. All of us left a little wiser and full of anticipation for the coming year.

In September of '55 we embarked on our SOPHOMORE YEAR.

As our second year at Killingly dawned we felt like "ole pros" at high school life.

With a feeling of assurance we launched our second year with the election of the following class officers: Dennis McShane, President; John Weaver, Vice President; Maureen Markley, Secretary; Paul Caron, Treasurer; and Martin O'Connor, Class Historian.

We owe a great deal of gratitude to our class moderator, Mr. William Moynihan, who so ably led us through our second year at high school.

New members to the Traffic Squad, "our hall-way patrol", were: Marilyn Friese, Lillian Rainville, Dennis McShane, Tom Mullaly, and Helvi Karro.

Shortly before Christmas we found ourselves wearing "The Capri" our new class rings.

Boys who participated in the various sports activities during the year were: Cliff Aubin, Paul Caron, Dennis McShane, Martin O'Connor, Bob Page, Donald Parsons, Roger Privee, John Weaver, Clinton Smith, and Ray Veillette.

Annual Science Fair awards went to the following members of our class: grand prize and first prize to Marilyn Friese and Mary Atsales, second prize to Barbara King and Maureen Markley, third prize to Lucy Chapin and Maureen Gorman.

At the 31st Annual Speaking Contest we were proud to be represented by five very talented students.

It was a happy day when Cynthia Gedney, Hilde Havenith, Carol Nash, Barbara King, and Lillian Rainville were chosen as new majorettes for the K.H.S. band.

On April 16th we held our Sophomore dance, "Dancing Under the Stars." Tommy Rothwell provided the music for this unforgettable evening.

In the 1956 Spelling Bee, Mary Atsales won first prize. We were mighty proud to have one of our classmates become the "official" speller of our school.

Later on in the spring a major event highlighted the end of our Sophomore year at Killingly. Arlette Cournoyer, Connie Couture, Diane Gumula, Carolyn Montstream, Patricia Nichols and Maureen Markley were chosen as new cheerleaders.

And so we had completed our second and last year as underclassmen. All that we had accomplished during the past two years prepared us for our next and most eventful years at high school.

The summer passed; it was September 1956 and the beginning of our JUNIOR YEAR.

At last we were upperclassmen. How "big" we felt when we found the new Freshmen looking up to us.

We began another year with the traditional class meeting for the election of Junior class officers. Those elected to lead our class in its first year as upperclassmen were: Dennis McShane, President; Paul Caron, Vice President; Maureen Markley, Secretary; John Weaver, Treasurer, and Pat Carragher, Class Historian.

This was to be a big year for us!

Plans were soon formulated for the Junior Informal, "Black Magic," which was held on October 25 in the K.H.S. gym. In the midst of appropriate decorations, couples danced to the smooth music of the Starlighters.

Seven of our classmates helped make our 1956 football season one never to be forgotten.

Maureen Markley took first place in the annual Spelling Bee on January 11. We certainly were proud to have another Spelling Bee winner from our class.

We beamed with pride when Barbara King was chosen as the new head majorette of the Killingly High School Band. Here sincere leadership earned the band and majorettes much praise and recognition.

At the annual Honor Society inductions Barbara King, Maureen Markley, Haila Peterson, Cynthia Gedney, and Carol Nash became new members of the society.

Early in February of 1957 rehearsals for our Junior play were launched under the very capable direction of Mr. Frederick Kiley.

On May 16 and 17 we presented "You Can't Take it With You" a reproduction of a popular Broadway hit. Few of us will ever forget the rehearsals, the final performances and the life backstage.

Two weeks later we gave our first formal dance, "Club '58 Manhattan," with music provided by Tommy Masso's orchestra. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Helvi Karro as Junior Prom Queen with Lorraine Smurra and Maureen Markley as attendants.

In no time at all June was upon us. At the final school assembly we were seated in the Senior section of the auditorium. How proudly we walked to and from our seats; we had obtained our long awaited goal. The past three years had passed so quickly but all that we had experienced made us ready to enter our last and most exciting year.

We owe a great deal of gratitude to Mr. Koss, our class advisor, who led us so capably throughout our junior year.

September 1957 arrived and we were finally SENIORS. This was to be the beginning of a year which many of us would never forget.

During the early part of October we held our first class meeting for the election of our final leaders. Those chosen to serve as class officers were Dennis McShane, President; John Weaver, Vice-President; Maureen Markley, Secretary; Mary Atsales, Treasurer; and Helvi Karro, Class Historian.

Co-captains for the 1957 football season were John Weaver and Cliff Aubin. Other seniors backing the team were Ray Veillette, John Zadora, Roger Privee, and Robert Page.

"Broad Street's answer to Broadway" was sounded when the Senior class presented "The People Versus Maxine Lowe" on December 11th and 12th. The play was a thundering success both dramatically and financially; and credit was due both to the casts and to Mr. Brine, our director.

Shortly before Christmas plans were underway for the '58 Killonian Yearbook. Mary Atsales and Helvi Karro were elected to serve as the co-editors.

The basketball season was soon underway. Paul Caron and Martin O'Connor were this year's able co-captains. Other seniors on the team were Richard Elvin and Cliff Aubin.

In the annual Spelling Bee held on January 17th we cheered with joy when three senior girls: Haila Peterson, Laila Renvall, and Lillian Rainville won first, second, and third places respectively.

On January 18th we held our senior formal, "Silver Snowfall". Couples danced under the silvery clouds to the music of Edmund Skeffington and his orchestra. Highlighting the evening was the crowning of Maureen Markley as Queen of the Senior Hop with Mary Atsales and Hilde Havenith serving as her attendants.

Later in the month Mary Atsales was the recipient of the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award.

In March, Mr. Fisher announced that Carol Nash and Haila Peterson were valedictorian and salutatorian.

We were further bequeathed with honor when Hilde Havenith won the 34th Annual Speaking Contest.

Those inducted into the National Honor Society were Mary Atsales, Elaine Chapman, Richard Elvin, Hilde Havenith, Helvi Karro, Lillian Rainville, Barbara Repasky, and Gerald Zajac.

Plans were carried out for the Senior Informal held during the latter part of May.

And then, June was here. All of us soon had thoughts of exams, the class outing, and graduation on our mind.

Exams were over, and on June 12th we went to Ted Hilton's in Moodus, Connecticut for our class outing. Few of us will ever forget the memories brought forth on this day.

Our Senior year is over and graduation has become a reality. All of us sincerely wish to thank Mr. Herbert Brine, our class advisor. His wonderful personality, patience and wisdom have made this, our last year at Killingly, one that shall never be forgotten. Thank you, Mr. Brine! !

And so, we the class of '58 are ready to leave Killingly High.

The plans for our future lives are written in the pages of another book and only He will know if the plans we ourselves have made will ever become a reality.

Respectfully submitted,
HELVI KARRO
Class Historian

Our Junior Production

On May 16 and 17, 1957, the Class of '58 presented, "You Can't Take It With You," a comedy in three acts in the K.H.S. auditorium. Mr. Frederick Kiley ably directed the large cast.

The story involved Alice Sycamore, a young secretary, and the complications which occurred during her romance with the boss' son. Alice was afraid to let Tony meet her parents because they were a very unusual family. Her sister believed in practicing ballet lessons in the midst of the living room. Grandpa liked to attend graduation exercises and collect snakes in his spare time. Strangers were welcomed with open arms, much to Alice's dissatisfaction.

Would Tony fit into their way of living? This was the big question. Luckily Grandpa was a very persuasive person, and Tony had a keen sense of logical reasoning.

The cast included the following:

"Club-'58 Manhattan"

With the decorations completed and the Ralph Stewart players about to embark on its first round of music, "Club-'58 Manhattan" finally became a reality and not just a dream.

The lights of the Manhattan skyline shown around the terrace of the make-believe penthouse and the party-goers danced to the enchanting music of the orchestra.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of popular and pretty Queen Helvi Karro and her deserving attendants Lorraine Smurra and Maureen Markley.

The lights died out and, as the final notes of music faded away, the annual Junior Prom was an event of the past!

Our Senior Production

"Broad Street's Answer to Broadway" was sounded when the Senior Class presented "The People Versus Maxine Lowe" on December 11th and 12th. Under the incomparable leadership of Mr. Brine, this tense, courtroom drama, with audience participation, kept spectators in suspense.

The story was a gripping trial, in which the defendant, Maxine Lowe, was charged with the murder of her husband. Incriminating evidence and family complications were revealed by the prosecutor, Warren Cass, as the drama progressed. However, through the able defense of Hathaway, Maxine was acquitted and reunited with her daughter, Jessalyn.

Our Senior Hop – "Silver Snowfall" . . .

As the clocks slowly rang the hour of eight, party-goers began arriving at the K.H.S. gym, which had been transformed into a typical winter wonderland to celebrate the annual Senior Hop, entitled SILVER SNOWFALL.

Amidst the snow covered hills and evergreens, the couples danced to the music of Edmund Skeffington and his orchestra.

In the queen's corner the dazzling white sleigh stood empty, awaiting the arrival of the Queen and her attendants. It wasn't long before the President of the Class of '58 made the long awaited announcement! Hilde Havenith and Mary Atsales had been chosen as attendants. Popular Maureen Markley had been voted to reign as Queen of the Senior Hop.

The music and dancing soon resumed but much too soon the music came to an end and the last of the couples had left. In the distance the sound of the clocks could be heard tolling the hour and also the end of the "Silver Snowfall" ! ! !

Class Prophecy

Time: June, 1978

Place: United States – Takeoff from Indiana

Characters: Hillwifly Renee Markley
Hillbilly Richard Elvin
Hilldilly Barbara King
The Hillwilliams
(dignified Hillbillies)

Mode of Transportation: Hill Saucer (Flying hillbilly's saucer flying around the country)

Barb: Hey, I've got an idea!

Renee & Dick: Whatcha all thinkin' about?

Barb: Let's all take a trip around the United States and find our old classmates.

Dick: Well, I'll go and back out the hill-saucer.

Renee: Let's go to South Dakota first. Oh, here we are already!

Barb: Look! There's Dennis McShane's face plastered on the Black Hills with the other Presidents.

Dick: I hear he's President of the C.C.C.

Renee: What's that? The Connecticut Chamber of Commerce?

Barb: No, the Crummy Comedians, Corporation.

Dick: He always was an efficient, but humorous President.

Renee: Here we all are in Washington. Who's that with the bagpipes climbing Mt. Molehill?

Barb: I can tell by his red face that it's Sandy Bryce.

Dick: Yeh, I heard he climbed the whole exasperating height of 275 feet.

Renee: It only took him one week. His speed has really picked up.

Barb: Did you hear about Jimmy Mason? He's in Hollywood down there.

Dick: Yeh, he's up for an Oscar for his most natural role as "Sleepy" in Disney's Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs.

Renee: I bet he didn't have to rehearse very much for it.

Barb: It just barely passed Martin O'Connor's Censorship Committee.

Dick: Man! Martin must have really changed since high school.

Renee: Where are we going from here?

Barb: I don't know, but I think we're passing over Death Valley now.

Dick: That's the place where we held our first class reunion.

Renee: Mr. Brine always said we were a bunch of deadheads.

Barb: There's Rita and Terry Bessette flying their airplanes over Las Vegas.

Dick: They flew so low, they flew away with the Diamond Horseshoe Casino.

Renee: What's that down there? Why it's the Grand Canyon.

Barb: There's Pete Harrelle and Eddie Schiffer trying to fill up the Grand Canyon with wheelbarrows full of sand.

Dick: Hey, there's a Saucertrain moving along the plains of Oklahoma. That's the new version of "Westward Ho. the Women."

Renee: It looks like Lucy Chapin and Helen Zurowski are the operators. They were always good operators in high school.

Barb: Look at those modern ranches down in Texas. I wonder who owns them?

Dick: The owners must be the ex-F.F.A. boys, Pete Chartier, Arthur Tracy and Ray Burlingame. They were always hard workers.

Renee: Well, it looks like history is repeating itself at the Alamo.

Barb: Why, did Davy Crockett die again?

Dick: No, the Rukstela's, Pete and Barbara attacked the Alamo with their saucers. Well, I guess that's better than bows and arrows.

Renee: Hey, Dodge City, Kansas. And there's a rehearsal for a movie going on. It looks like the modern version of the old adult westerns.

Barb: Who is that handsome cowboy down there? Matt Dillon? Oh, no, it's Moe Corbeil!

Dick: And his sidekick Roger Beauregard playing Chester.

Renee: Look, Elaine Chapman is Kitty, their leading lady. We'd better leave now, so we won't interrupt rehearsals.

Barb: Is that the Mardi Gras down there in New Orleans?

Dick: No, that's just Norma Chenard giving another one of her parties.

Renee: Her parties always did create a big bang.

Barb: We're now entering the vacationland of Florida.

Dick: I hear that Doug Kenefick has become quite famous here.

Renee: He's the world's champion alligator wrestler. I hear he's changed his name to "Fearless Jungle" Doug.

Barb: Some of our classmates have become famous in Florida. In fact, they're out of this world!

Dick: You can say that again; The chemical "whiz" John Soderberg has really accomplished something.

Renee: Yes, he built a dynamic super-duper dual-saucer. Linda Merow and Freddie Bowen took advantage of it and went on a honeymoon trip to the moon.

Barb: Let's move up the coast. Why, here's Georgia.

Dick: Hey, it looks like they're holding a Miss Georgia contest, and Helvi Karro has just won it. I wonder what she gets for a prize.

Renee: Ordinarily the winner receives a pitfull full of pitless peaches.

Barb: On to South Carolina! There's a revival of the old "rock and roll" band down there.

Dick: Yeh, it's Rickie "Elvis" Nelson's band with its first women members: Barbara Arnold, Carita Aarnio, and Jackie Dolloff.

Renee: It sounds like someone's playing out of tune. I wonder who's doing it?

Barb: It's that drummer back there. Why it's Freddie Jacobi!

Dick: Say, isn't that a factory over there? Yes, it's Janet Smith's gum factory.

Renee: She invented a new gum in three different flavors: lemon, orange, and strawberry. I understand she's used a new ingredient called Smather.

Barb: It has become quite popular. If you chew it long enough, the gum changes to the three flavors.

Dick: She has good assistance, too. Her chief gum wrapper-upper is "wrap 'em by the minute" Marilee Joly.

Renee: Oh, we're flying over North Carolina's Television City. A program is just going off now. The name of it was "Who Dunnit" starring Mary Dunn.

Barb: The boxing matches are coming on now. Say, the announcer's voice sounds familiar. No wonder! It's Jackie Weaver.

Dick: He says that the main event features "Sir Gallahad" (alias Roger Privee) with his trainer Cliff "Golden Gloves" Aubin. Well, that ought to be a good fight.

Renee: Oh, there's another T.V. program in Kentucky. It's called the $64,000,000 Haul. The master of ceremonies is Richard Grenier. I wonder who this week's contestant is!

Barb: Why it's that scholar Carol Nash. Her category is "the history of the Great, but retired, English professor Mr. Herbert J. Brine.

Dick: Carolyn Montstream, the usherette, is now bringing in Miss Nash. Backstage is the President of the bank, Arthur J. P. Desfosses. Bob Page has already brought in his freshly-minted money.

Renee: While we're in this part of the country, we may as well stop in at Washington, D.C. to see how the first woman justice of the Supreme Court, Mary George Atsales, is doing.

Barb: Well, right now, she's presiding over a heated debate between justices Kathy Lannon and Cynthia Gedney.

Dick: That ought to be interesting. They were pretty good debaters in high school.

Renee: We should be over New Jersey now. That reminds me, isn't that where Mr. Kiley lives?

Barb: There's Mr. Kiley! He's helping Lorraine Smurra brush up on her ballet. Since her appearance in the Junior Play, she has continued "her career" and has become a famous dancer.

Dick: Isn't Tom Mullaly stationed here in New Jersey?

Renee: He's still in boot-training. He's always arguing with his sergeant, Teddy Lefevre, because Tom feels that it's about time he stopped shining the sergeant's boots.

Barb: Well, off to Connecticut! Quite a few of our classmates went into business there.

Dick: Eatmore's is still the hangout for teenagers. It's changed owners, however. The new proprietors are the three C's: Pat Carragher, Connie Couture, and Arlette Cournoyer.

Renee: Just down the road is the Orpheum Theatre run by the three G's: Jeannine Gaudette, Barbara Gibeault, and Justine Green.

Barb: They put in a few improvements. One of the more convenient is a revolving chair, whereby you can watch the movie in almost any comfortable position.

Dick: Not far from the theater is the completion of Route 6. Ray Veillette, the President of the Jaycees, has just put through the new road . . . ah . . . highway. No doubt this highway will have many travelers.

Renee: I see where they have toll-takers, also. They are Barbara Repasky, Barbara Stone, and Mary Ann Costa.

Barb: We're now following the course of the Connecticut River. Look! There's Gail Romppainen, Kathy Roy, and Laila Renvall sailing down the river in their new invention, the oarless rowboat.

Dick: Yes, I understand it took them eighty days to sail the entire length. That seems like an awful long time! I wonder why?

Renee: With Gail gabbing and the wind against her, what else could you expect! She always was quite the talker.

Barb: Let's go across the state line to Rhode Island. That's the place where Haila Peterson is a private secretary.

Dick: She made a new record by typing 200 words a minute with only 199 mistakes.

Renee: Not far from Haila's office is a large soda jerk shop run by Joan McMerriman and Arlene Moran. Angela Minio is their head waitress.

Barb: On to Massachusetts! Look, a transport plane is landing in Boston. What a pleasant looking stewardess getting off the plane.

Dick: Yes, that's Diane Gumula. She's on the New York to Boston flight.

Renee: On the way, didn't you notice a convalescent home in Cape Cod? That's Mr. Brine's present residence. I guess he's recuperating from our class of '58.

Barb: The head nurse in the home is Arline Brunet. Her assistants are Kathy Kowal and Joan LaCombe, and the medical secretary is Ruth Whipple. I hope they take good care of Mr. Brine.

Dick: Who's that great orator in Boston Hall? Of course, it's Hilde Havenith!

Renee: Her famous speech "Guilty or Not Guilty, That is the Question" has been delivered at Alcatraz and Sing Sing.

Barb: I understand that the criminal rate has increased. They must have answered the question themselves.

Dick: Rose Cimochowski is in Boston, too.

Renee: Yes, she's a woman doctor in Boston Clinic. Her assistant is interne Leon Grudzinski.

Barb: They just finished a TV series called "A Stitch in Time Saves Nine."

Dick: They sure have their job sewed up.

Renee: Sally Harriman has her own business. She sells perfumes for Avon. The product is called "Farm Fragrance No. 5".

Barb: Dottie Breton has invented a new cure for a cold. She calls it "Pass it on".

Dick: The "kids" are all "hep" about it.

Renee: New York's the place where most of our classmates settled. Let's go there.

Barb: Look, June Salony and Ronnie Bernier are modeling clothes for the new out-of-space look.

Dick: Donald Parsons is also in the modeling business. He's modeling Roman tunics in Macy's store window.

Renee: And who's that taking a picture of Don's dimpled knees? Why it's Andy "Pictures Don't Lie" Tillinghast.

Barb: He's the photographer for the magazine "The Bee's Knees".

Dick: What's that? It's a bird! It's a plane! No, it's only Ruth Manttari in her hot rod designed by Shirley Mahon.

Renee: Ruth "Black Rider" Manttari is the first woman to start the 500 mile race.

Barb: And Pat Nichols is the first woman to finish.

Dick: Isn't that John Wadewitz and Richard Traut walking along 5th Avenue?

Renee: They're putting up signs that say "Don't Forget to Vote".

Barb: That's the big election next week to decide which one is the taller.

Dick: Who's that rushing along 6th Avenue? Isn't it Bob Tegtmeier?

Renee: He's late again! Only this time he's late for his own wedding.

Barb: The Palace Theater has recently featured two of our former classmates. Lois Lavigueur, a recording star for R.C.A., sang her hit record, "Saucers are Here to Stay".

Dick: Joe Zadora had his premiere as a foreman for a jury in a play. As the climatic moment arrived, Joe forgot his only line.

Here's the line-up, what's the score?

The 1958 Football Season . . .

As school opened everyone anxiously awaited the start of the football season. No one knew what to expect from this team. Last year's graduation cut heavily into the ranks of the football squad, and Killingly also had an entirely new coaching staff this year consisting of Arthur Roche, head coach, and Victor Hoar, assistant coach. The team lost its full season courageously; but in several games if they could have gotten a break at the right time, they could have won.

The team as a whole was composed mainly of inexperienced underclassmen who can use the valuable experience gained this year to once again put Killingly on the winning road. Everyone who went out for the team and stuck with it deserves to be congratulated for displaying the spirit the team showed this year. The coaches are also to be congratulated for their enthusiasm even in the face of insurmountable odds.

The seniors are especially to be congratulated because they can't say wait till next year. The seniors stuck with it through thick and thin and showed the kind of determination it takes to play football. This was particularly noticeable in the Putnam game when they almost led the team to a tremendous upset over our arch rivals.

The Senior Class wants to wish next year's team, which will be led by Co-captains Dick Watson and John Downs, the best of luck.

They never stopped giving . . .

their very best . . .

JACK—Co-Captain and E.C.C. lineman this year.

CLIFF—Co-Captain and a fine player who showed his versatility in three positions.

RAY—He played end and was always pulling Killingly out of tight situations.

BOB—He was a four year man and particularly good on defense.

JOE—His first year, but his playing technique proved what a great sportsman he was.

ROGER—A halfback who could always pick up yardage when we needed it.

The will to win . . .

With the loss of the entire starting five from last year's fine team, our very able coaches, Mr. Nichols and Mr. Berthiaume, feared that with only four returning lettermen, only one who had very much experience, we would have a losing season. In pre-season scrimmages the team was very ineffective against weak competition; but as soon as the season opened, the team suddenly came to life and turned in some fine performances. Until the middle of the season when they hit a three-game losing streak, they had a seven and one record. After ending their losing streak, they went on to win six of their last nine games and wound up the regular season with a respectable 13 and 7 record and a tie for second in the Eastern Connecticut Conference.

By winning better than half their games, the team qualified for the state tournament. In the first game of the tournament, they ran into the powerhouse of Abbot Tech of Danbury, which defeated them despite a gallant effort by every member of the team.

This year's team was composed of players of almost equal ability. Nine different players drew starting assignments sometime during the year.

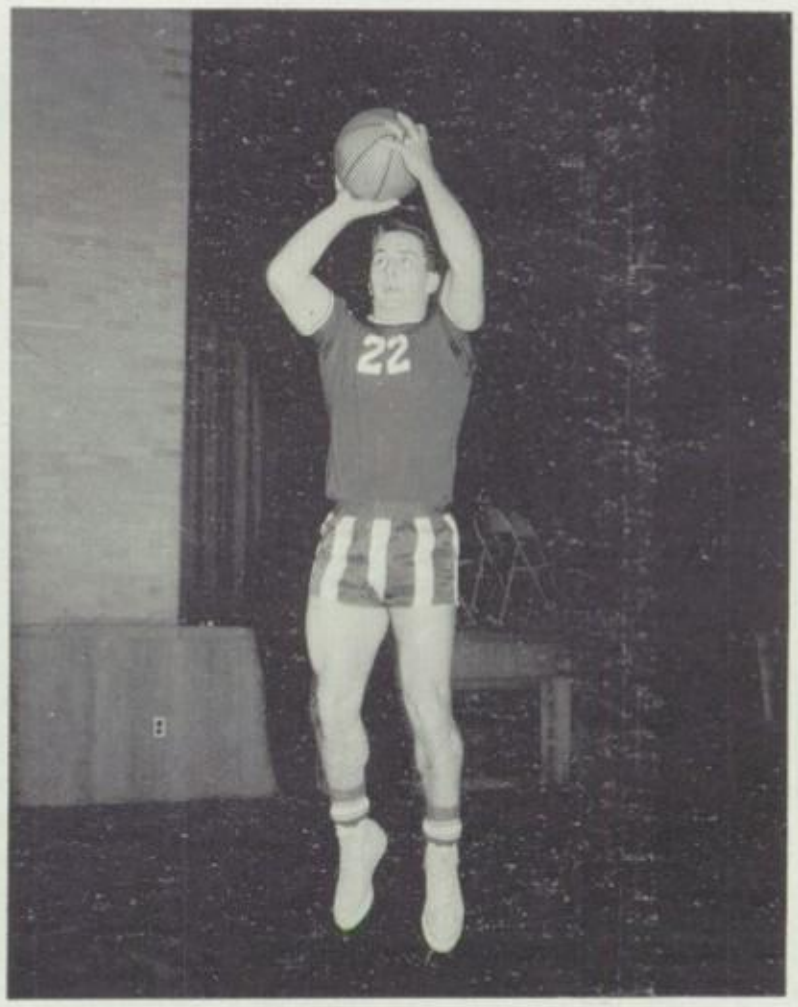
MARTIN O'CONNOR
Co-Captain and a good hustler, who also was one of the leading scorers.



CLIFF AUBIN
Cliff's determination paid off when he won a position on the varsity.

DICK ELVIN
A reserve who could be counted on for a good job when needed.

PAUL CARON
Co-Captain. A good steady ballplayer in addition to being a leading scorer.

The track team has a new look this year. They have received new equipment. This should give the boys an added desire to get in shape so they can have a respectable season. Through the coaching of Mr. Nichols and the hard work of the team as a whole, this should be the year that track starts an upswing in Killingly.

The returning lettermen will be led by seniors Cliff Aubin, Ray Veillette, Roger Privee, Jack Weaver, and Dick Elvin. The other returning lettermen are Ulo Murd, Ken Brumfield, Pierre Lalumiere, Frank King, David Keeler, and Tom Singleton.

As Killingly's newest sport, golf, opens its second year, hopes are high for its becoming a major sport. The team is handicapped by inexperience, but the enthusiasm shown by the members of the team will soon have them seasoned veterans. Under the fine coaching of Mr. Nichols the boys' scores are going down with each week. The team practices every Thursday evening at the Pomfret Golf Course and one or two evenings a week at Alumni Field. The team is composed mainly of underclassmen which makes the future of golf at Killingly a bright one.

Seniors on the team are: Cliff Aubin, Andrew Tillinghast, Dick Elvin, and Ronald Bernier.

In the remaining weeks of school the sound of wood meeting horsehide will be heard as the Killingly High baseball team practices for their twelve game schedule. The team has many returning lettermen, but most of them are inexperienced underclassmen. Through the guidance of our new coach, Armand Berthiaume, and the leadership of the returning seniors, Dennis McShane, Roger Privee, John Zadora, and Richard Grenier, a winning season is anticipated this year.

As usual the GIRLS' SPORTS CLUB had a very active year. The club has offered an opportunity for girls of all classes to participate in intramural sports. The general goal has been to achieve a sufficient amount of points in order to be eligible for numerals, letters, and charms. This year's activities included: volleyball, basketball, and softball.

Under the supervision of Miss Farfaras, the physical education director, the club met once a month with dues at $1.00 a year.

The main activity of the club during the year was the annual "Beat Putnam" dance, which precedes the traditional Thanksgiving Day game with Putnam. This year the dance supported one of the largest turnouts in several years! It proved to be a great success in many ways, especially in the wholehearted efforts and determination displayed by our team on Thanksgiving Day! !

The purpose of the TRAFFIC SQUAD is to facilitate the changing of classes and to see that the students arrive at their classes on time.

To become an authorized member of the squad, the student must be nominated by the teachers and voted upon by the Senior members of the squad. Members are chosen on the basis of their citizenship marks and all-round class performances.

The squad is under the direction of Mr. Frederick Oliva.

The KILLONIAN, our traditional school newspaper, enjoyed a tremendously successful year under the able direction of Mrs. Betty Brennan and Mr. Ernest Champagne. This year's sales rocketed and, coupled with an increase in price, the copies sold reached a record high. For the first time in many years the Killonian was able to wipe out its deficit and operate in the black.

Also, the staff was cut to a minimum, which enabled the paper to operate with the utmost efficiency and with the greatest order possible. The working members of the paper contributed greatly in making our publication a smooth running organization.

In accordance with a new precedent established a year ago, two Juniors were chosen as co-editors of the paper. Sandra Page and Martha Pike, along with the advisors, helped to make this year a memorable one for the Killonian.

A flare of trumpets, a snare of drums, and 48 high school students marched down the football field to start off the K.H.S. BAND season with flying colors. This impetus helped to spur the players on to one of the best shows of spirit that Killingly has ever seen.

The individual effort of every band member and the able direction of Mr. Spencer, carried off the traditional performances, parades, school and Christmas assemblies, and graduation exercises, very well.

Several new activities were added to the schedule this year. On Halloween night, a gay procession of witches and goblins were led through the streets by the band. At the opening of the new Killingly Highway, the band braved the cold winds and played selections for the many on-lookers. Another first for the band this year, came when it was represented in the All-State Music Festival.

Serving as our Spring Concert, the musical forces of Killingly High and East Bridgewater High, Massachusetts, combined to present a joint program which was presented on separate evenings at each school. This experience helped to make this '57-'58 season a banner year for the band.

The KILLINGLY HIGH SCHOOL MAJORETTE CORPS certainly exhibited a host of spectacular performances. Their routines could only have been accomplished through the diligence and spirit the girls were so willing to give.

Their appearances at parades, football games, and concerts were greatly appreciated by the community and the school. In honor of their continuous services the Girls' Sports Club awarded each majorette with a sterling silver pin.

The girls also receive pins from the music department in the spring of each year.

Every Saturday morning found the girls at the Killingly Memorial School, learning and practicing under the direction of qualified majorettes from the University of Connecticut.

Miss Barbara King, drum majorette, is greatly commended by her fellow students for the excellent leadership she has rendered.

During the first semester both the Mixed Choir and the Girls' Glee Club rehearsed strenuously in preparation for the annual all school Christmas Assembly.

During the second semester the choir and the glee club presented an Exchange Concert at East Bridgewater High in Massachusetts. The annual Spring Concert held at K.M.S. provided an occasion when the surrounding public enjoyed a fine presentation of varied musical scores.

Music, which has always been an integral part of the graduation exercises, was presented this year by members of both choral groups.

The aims of the ART CLUB, directed by Mr. John Haskell, are to give those students with artistic interests an opportunity to develop their abilities. During the year the club met regularly on Mondays and Thursdays. Included in this year's activities were pencil portraits, linoleum block printing, heroic character figure drawings, fashion figures in color, industrial designing, and learning the moods of color.

MRS. BERNICE NIEJADLIK

For two years our class has been under the excellent "guidance" of Mrs. Niejadlik. If anyone of us had a problem—any problem, be it academic or otherwise—she was always there to help. Her persistent interest in our life after graduation has helped many students find the college or job best suited for him. Thank you, Mrs. Niejadlik, for the helping hand that has proved invaluable to us.

Mrs. Niejadlik has sponsored the following clubs:

Future Nurses
Future Teachers
Future Engineers

The purpose of the DEBATING CLUB is to further the interest and to develop the abilities of students in regard to forensic skill. It is a more specialized form of public speaking in that its objective is the thorough study of a few topics with an emphasis on the participants' ability to prove and disprove given propositions.

The activities of the debating society fall into three groups. First, there is the annual debate between Killingly High and Plainfield High for a trophy awarded by the Danielson Chapter of Elks.

Secondly, there are two Model Legislatures held yearly which Killingly has attended for the past two years. These legislatures are the University of Connecticut Model Legislature, and the American International College Junior Model Congress in Springfield. Massachusetts. The latter is one of the most outstanding activities of its type in the United States.

Lastly, a series of panel discussions are held for the student body in which topics of current interest are discussed.

CLASS PROPHECY

Renee: There's been a big merger between the A&P and the Stop and Shop stores.

Barb: The proprietors Clinton Smith, Donald Choquette, David Kettelle, and Richard Toper are at a loss for a new name for their establishment.

Dick: Paul Caron's the coach of the A.A.A. team. He's finally accomplished his goal. By the way, what does the A.A.A. stand for?

Renee: It's not what you're thinking! It's the Amateur Athletics of America.

Barb: The team consists of all girls with "Toots" Cotnoir as the "Big Gun".

Dick: She broke all records by scoring 50 points for the other team.

Renee: Let's go to Niagara Falls to see how our engaged classmates have made out.

Barb: Here we are! Virginia Jacques, Shirley Gomes, Helen LeClaire, and Miriam Baribeau are taking pictures of their husbands going over the falls in barrels.

Dick: They look as if they're having a barrel of fun.

Renee: Another spectator is Gerry Zajac. He had his picture taken recently for the cover of Charm magazine.

Barb: He really has a nice Pepsodent smile.

Dick: Gerry's a traveling salesman, with the motto "Have Toothbrush, Will Travel".

Renee: Speaking of traveling, let's move on to Chicago. That is the place where "The Chicago Tribune" is located.

Barb: Lillian Rainville is the energetic newspaper reporter. She has reported on an exciting topic this week.

Dick: The topic is Elvis Presley vs. Pat Boone. Ed Markley and Phillip Lancer argued on the pros and cons of different beats of music.

Renee: Bud Kettelle is also in Chicago. He was the first 5-star general to graduate from Killingly High.

Barb: Well, the hills of Indiana are in sight. We should be heading home.

Dick: Yes, the saucer is running low on kickapoo juice. It's about time we got down to earth again.

Renee: This has certainly been an enjoyable trip. We're all looking forward to the next reunion in 1998. We'll be saucering around to see you again.
Renee, Dick, Barb — So Long.
